

Kentuckiana Masonry Institute is a non-profit trade association that utilizes faxes as a means of communication with our members. Eliminating the "established business relationship" qualification from the fax regulation would create a tremendous burden on associations in the form of paperwork and/or increased costs of doing business. Please stop these new fax regulations and the undue hardship they would create for associations before they start.